

princeton research day 2016 judging form

please return this form to Frist 207

Presenter name	_____
Presentation type:	_____
Presentation number	_____
Judge	_____

Instructions to judges:

1. The presentations should be targeted to a general audience.
2. Enter the score (1-5) in the column to the right of each category. (Total of 50 points)

1 Poor	2 Fair	3 Good	4 Very Good	5 Excellent
------------------	------------------	------------------	-----------------------	-----------------------

Motive	Score
The goal of the work, question being asked, or problem being posed is clear
Significance of project and what is at stake (why it matters) is evident
Research/creative activity is situated within its academic field or wider artistic context
Thesis or hypothesis
Argument or performance addresses the motivating question or problem
Key terms and concepts fit together; if performance, performance has a clear connection to motive
Method
Process for undertaking investigation or developing performance is apparent
Research/creative activity methods are appropriate for addressing the objectives presented by the presenter
Results are clear and support conclusions; if performance there is a clear relationship between the artist's statement and the performance
Delivery
Clarity of explanation for a nonspecialist audience
Presentation was engaging and easy to follow
Comments (optional) If you would like to provide a comment it will be shared with the presenter. The presenter will not know your name or the score you assign.	Total points

Of all the presentations you've seen today, is this one worthy of a prize? yes no