

Princeton Research Day Princeton University Library Award Judging Rubric

PLEASE NOTE: all scores must be submitted using the provided online PRD Judge Scoring Form. This PDF is for informational purposes only.

Directions: Enter a score (1-5) in the column to the right of each category. Then add together your individual scores to determine total points (maximum = 25 points). An average performance in a category should receive a 3.

1 - Poor	2 - Fair	3 - Average	4 - Very Good	5 - Excellent
AWARD CATEGORY					SCORE
How well does the presentation match the award description on the website?
MAIN IDEA					SCORE
Does the presentation successfully explain its main idea?
SCHOLARLY APPROACH					SCORE
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Does the presentation successfully demonstrate how the topic, problem, or question was studied? - Does it illustrate the use of library resources in the research and scholarship? Does the presentation reference consultation with a library expert? If a performance, does the artist give context in which library resources contributed to the creative work?
ACCESSIBILITY					SCORE
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Were the graphics and text easy-to-view? - Did the visuals enhance the presentation and cover topics in the presentations?
STYLE & DELIVERY					SCORE
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Was the presentation or performance engaging and easy to follow? - Was it appropriately pitched to a non-specialist audience, democratizing access to knowledge? Did the presenter speak clearly?
					TOTAL POINTS
					Is this presentation worthy of a Princeton University Library prize (Yes / No)
					In one or two sentences, please tell us why you think this presentation is or isn't worthy of this prize.	